DISSOLUTION.—The firm of Fisher & Harris is dissolved. See card.

HARRY.—Want of space and other circumstances compel us to decline your letters of travel.

A CHANGE.—We ask attention to a change in the card of Messrs. REID, CHADBOURN & Co., in this paper. It will be seen that they have made advantageous arrangements to supply their friends with Bagging and Rope.

REVIVAL.—The meeting at the Methodist Church is still in progress, and up to yesterday there had been 17 professions, and there are 12 mourners still enquiring the way to be saved. We trust the work may continue until Pulaski shall be entirely regenerated. Nine individuals joined the Methodist Church last Sunday.

The revival is conducted at the Methodist Church, but has the hearty co-operation of the Presbyterians. Mr. EWING, the earnest and efficient Presbyterian Minister, shares labor with Mr. MOOREY both in the pulpit and in the altar, and both are lending their whole time and energies to the good work.

Cholera in Nashville.

The Revival of Tuesday puts a quietus to the absurd reports which had been in circulation up to that time, concerning cholera in Nashville. The editor took the trouble to enquire of the sextons of the different cemeteries, and of the undertakers, and obtained from them information which must be reliable. From the 10th to the 17th there were only seventy interments. On the 17th 51, on the 18th 56, and on the 19th 43.

Now these reports of 75 or 100 deaths a day are not only foolish but absolutely wicked. If so many people die, where are they buried? Are they thrown into the river, or are they permitted to moulder above ground? We submit to a candid, rational public if such an idea is not preposterous in the extreme. Have done with these silly rumors, then. The scourge is bad enough in all consciences without magnifying four fold by these street reports.

According to the estimate of intelligent gentlemen in Mississippi, who compose an association for collecting data as to the cotton crop of that State, one-fourth of an ordinary crop would be an extravagant estimate of the cotton that will be made in Mississippi this year.

The Internal Revenue Commissioner, in reply to inquiries whether there is any internal duty on the products of sorghum, replies that molasses and sugar made from sorghum or imphee, are, and have been, since the passage of the act of March 3d, 1865, exempt from duty.

It is expected that Washington College, now under the Presidency of Gen. R. E. Lee, will contain five hundred students next session.

BROWNLOW publicly asserts that he is now in the North to procure arms and ammunition with which "to whip the boys at home!" He stated privately in Philadelphia that he already had 15,000. This is a pretty good beginning.

BROWNLOW has ordered elections to be held in thirteen counties of the State for members of the Legislature.

Very heavy rain, wind and thunder here yesterday evening.

It is thought that Gen. A. P. Stewart will accept the Presidency of Cumberland University.

GENERAL CHARLES G. HALPINE ("Miles O'Reilly"), a gallant soldier of the U. S. volunteer army in the late war, in his paper, the New York Citizen, of the 15th inst., expresses the belief that a proposition will be made at the Convention of Soldiers and Sailors, now in convention at Cleveland, to regard the meeting as only a gathering for the purpose of devising and establishing some form of systematic organization throughout the Union, and for holding an adjourned Convention, either at Washington or Wheeling, to which all ex-soldiers and sailors of the late Confederate States will be invited.

This will be sustained on the ground that it was the politicians of both sections who led the country blindfold into the recent civil war; and that, for this reason, it is time the men who bore the brunt of the conflict on either side, should meet as friends and lay down terms to avoid all difficulties in the future.—Banner.

HENRY WARD BEECHER has written a long letter in explanation and defense of his position. He claims to be as good a Republican as ever, and only a partial sympathizer in the President's views.

Meeting of the Country Press.

The Semi-Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Press Association will take place at the City Hotel, Nashville, on Monday the 1st day of October, at 10 o'clock A. M. It is very desirable that the entire Country Press of the State should be represented on the occasion, and the earnest request is made that a delegate from each office be in attendance. As there will be matters of common interest to the Daily and Country Press before the Association, the former is cordially invited to participate in the business. THOS. BOWMAN, President. HUNTER NICHOLSON, Secretary.
